SPTOR is an all volunteer
operation and an official
committee of the City.
The committee meets
monthly to plan,
finance, design and
build the float
that represents
South Pasadena to millions worldwide
in the annual Tournament of Roses
on New Years Day.

South Pasadena's
is the oldest
self-built float.

SPTOR Committee Application

The Mission of the South Pasadena Tournament of Roses Committee is to create positive exposure for our city through participation in the Pasadena Tournament of Roses, which will elevate our community and our organization by using principals based on volunteerism for the successful completion of our annual floral entry.
